

Prof. Gurmani Chadha is an Assistant Professor specializing in Finance and Sustainability. She holds a Bachelor's degree from Shri Ram College of Commerce (SRCC) and a Master's degree from Delhi School of Economics. She has submitted her PhD thesis at the Faculty of Management Studies (FMS), University of Delhi, with her research focusing on sustainability reporting, ESG dimensions, and the integration of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into accounting and finance.

Prof. Chadha has made significant contributions to the academic community through her publications in leading high-grade journals such as Environmental Science and Pollution Research (Impact Factor: 5.8, SCIE, Q1), Journal of Accounting Literature (Impact Factor: 5.6, ESCI, A category), Managerial Finance (Impact Factor: 1.6, ESCI, Bcategory), and International Journal of Finance & Economics (Impact Factor: 2.9, SSCI, Bcategory). She has presented her research at prominent international conferences, including the International Conference on Sustainable Development: Challenges, Opportunities, and the Future, as well as conferences at IIM Bodhgaya and SRCC.

In addition to her research, she has completed the Sustainability Ambassador Program organized by MNIT, Jaipur, and attended a Summer School on Sustainability Management and Reporting by Universita Di Pavia. She also serves as a reviewer for prestigious journals such as the International Journal of Disclosure and Governance, the International Journal of Managerial Finance, and Business Analyst Journal.

Her teaching and research interests are in finance and sustainability.