

Prof. Neha has submitted her Ph.D. thesis in the Finance Area at the Department of Management Studies (DMS), Indian Institute of Technology, Delhi (IIT Delhi). She has completed her B.com (H) from Shri Ran College of Commerce (SRCC) and M.com from the Delhi School of Economics (DSE), Delhi University. She works in Corporate Finance, and her thesis focused on the impact of ownership structure on dividend policy and firm value of Indian listed companies. A dedicated researcher in her domain, her research papers have won awards at reputed international conferences. With a solid foundation in financial theory and a commitment to excellence, Prof. Neha brings fresh perspectives and innovative approaches to the classroom. Her enthusiasm for finance and eagerness to inspire students make her a valuable addition to the academic community. She is committed to fostering a dynamic and engaging learning environment. Her teaching and research interests are Financial Management, Project Appraisal, Corporate Dividend Policy, and International Finance.