

Vrinda Rawal is Ph.D. in Finance from the Indian Institute of Foreign Trade (IIFT), New Delhi. Her area of specialization revolves around Corporate Finance, Accounting, Corporate Control and Private Equity. She has completed her Graduation as Bachelor of Commerce (Hons) and Post Graduation as Master of Commerce (Finance), from the University of Delhi and qualified for UGC NET in the subject. She has two years of teaching experience in business schools for financial and accounting subjects. She continuously upgrades her knowledge and experience by participating in workshops and faculty development programs. Her research work has been published in ABDC and Web of Science journals and she has attended and presented in several international conferences of repute including Annual Meeting by Academy of International Business (AIB). She also serves as a reviewer for reputed peer reviewed journals such as the Global Business Review and Focus WTO.